

2011 Annual Fire Safety Report

Holy Cross College

POLICY STATEMENT:

A building with high concentrations of people poses serious hazards in the event of a fire. The loss of life and property in any fire has proven to be the least where well organized procedures have been established, and where all persons involved have carried out their instructions in a systematic organized and effective manner. For this reason, every employee is instructed to fully acquaint him or herself with this plan of procedure. If you have any questions, or if you are not completely sure of your specific functions, you should immediately discuss these matters with your supervisor.

POINTS TO REMEMBER:

The greatest single hazard of a fire is panic. You must avoid panic, you must avoid panic among the students, and, above all, you must avoid giving any other person the impression that you are frightened or in a state of panic. You should assume the air of a cool, reassuring person who has a task to perform and is performing it in an efficient manner.

The Holy Cross Campus is composed of fire resistant buildings. However, the contents are not all fire resistant or fireproof, and the spread of a fire will be determined by the amount of flammable material that is in the vicinity of the fire.

For the well being of students, no student shall be involved in the effort to put out the fire or to move about the building, unless they have been specifically trained to carry out such activity i.e. RAs, HDs. Then only when the probability of the entire building being involved in a fire is most remote.
